Widows and Widowers

Have you lost your spouse and are looking to reconnect with others?

Have you had bereavement support in the past but are wanting to find others who understand what you are going through?

Then this program may be for you!

Widows and Widowers is an education and social program where you will hear various topics from keeping safe to maximizing your leisure activity level!

This program is not a bereavement counseling service.

It is facilitated by staff trained in therapeutic recreation

The main focus is the social aspect of the group and connecting with others.
